

Maintenance Service Summary

The maintenance service tasks outlined in this section are based on intervals of:

- ▷ Time; and/or
- ▷ Mileage; or combined with
- ▷ Performing a specified occurrence of a maintenance service task.

Such intervals are primarily determined by the BMW Maintenance System unless otherwise noted in this booklet.

The information contained in this booklet is correct as of the "print date." BMW reserves the right to make changes to the vehicle's maintenance service parameters and intervals due to running vehicle production improvements (among other things).

Your authorized BMW center can utilize the most current applicable maintenance service information to determine which maintenance service inspections and service tasks need to be performed on your vehicle.
